Themes in Contemporary Art

What do we mean when we say contemporary art rather than modernism or postmodernism? Site Specificity, Site as geographic location to site as discursive site of creative enquiry- Artists engagement with history both uncovering forgotten histories and social histories. Looking at how contemporary artists negotiate ideas of the monument- Artists approach to identity- gender/ sexuality/ race- How is identity constructed? Otherness and Representation, Questions of hybridity vs essentialism- New figurative painting, artists negotiating the mediated body, the performing body- Participatory practices and collaboration - How do artists make work about everyday life? Honouring the ordinary above the spectacle- Defining the Anthropocene, artists response to climate change and ecology- Contemporary responses to our relationship with other species- Artists approach to ecology, looking at both rural and urban contexts
