

Module Title:	Connecting Social Care Practice to a Globalized World
Credits:	5
NFQ Level:	8
Module Delivered In	1 programme(s)
Teaching & Learning Strategies:	Lectures, reading, online resources, classroom activities, podcasts, guest speakers and class discussion, international speakers, online international webinars and conferences
Module Aim:	Provide the learner with an overview of contemporary and emerging global and national issues such as inequality, discrimination, oppression, racism, and the repression of civil liberties. It will provide the learner with opportunities to critically reflect on the effect globalization is having on social care practice, namely how it is changing service delivery and altering how we work within a globalized world and culturally diverse society. It aims to support the learner in recognizing the importance of practicing in a non- discriminatory, culturally sensitive way, respecting differences in beliefs and cultural practices of individuals or groups within society. The learner will also be encouraged to reflect on their own life experience vis - a- vie others, to see the world as others see it.
