Teaching &amp; Learning Strategies:	A variety of teaching and learning strategies will be used. Primarily class based lectures illustrated by case studies and potential field trips. Teaching will be complemented by directed learning based on continuing assessment projects.
Module Aim:	The aim of this module is to further develop the learner's awareness of concepts introduced in previous tourism modules and to apply them to the issues of developing environmentally, culturally and economically sustainable tourism projects. The module will provide a critical appreciation for the principles of authenticity and sustainability in modern tourism development. This module will provide graduates with the skills to pursue sustainability within a continually evolving tourism industry.

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this module the learner should be able to:
LO1	Demonstrate a critical appreciation of the significance of authenticity and sustainability in modern tourism development.
LO2	Employ a developed appreciation of 'Sense of Place', and its significance to resident communities and tourists, in the pursuit of sustainable tourism development.
LO3	Critically assess the cultural and environmental sustainability of national and international tourism initiatives.
LO4	Employ the skills necessary to effectively interpret and communicate the natural and cultural heritage of a tourism destination.
LO5	Utilise, in a focused manner, the research skills and knowledge acquired in four years of study to develop a sustainable tourism concept.
