Teaching &amp; Learning Strategies:	Lectures, tutorials, seminars, and independent learning.
Module Aim:	The aim of this module is to provide students with an understanding of the philosophical foundations and theories of law; the nature of jurisprudence and its terminology; the major theories of jurisprudential thought, for example, natural law, utilitarianism and positivism, examined through the writings of major authors in the field; the nature and role of law within society; concepts of justice and morality and the social contract, and the philosophical basis of various common law principles. Students will also be introduced to and encouraged to reflect upon, questions of what makes for a valid system of binding laws, and the distinction between a just and an unjust legal system.

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this module the learner should be able to:
LO1	Define and discuss the relationship between law and morality
LO2	Write coherently and convincingly drawing on concepts in the work of the key jurists or schools studied
LO3	Formulate their own, critically aware, position on jurisprudential matters
LO4	Demonstrate and appreciation of the relevance of jurisprudence to educational development in general and to the study of law in particular
