Module Title:	Law and Regulations for Tourism and Event Management
Language of Instruction:	English

Credits:	5

NFQ Level:	7

Module Delivered In	2 programme(s)

Teaching & Learning Strategies:	The learning outcomes will be achieved through the following:- • Lectures – outlining of knowledge and ideas to learner • Independent Learning – learners directed to relevant reading materials (conventional and e-learning) with a view to embedding and enhancing outline knowledge and developing independent research skills • Class Discussion/Debate – learners to engage in class discussions to develop communication and analytical skills • Project Work/Problem Solving – learners to work together to solve various legal scenarios.

Module Aim:	This module aims to to give students an understanding of Irish law and regulation as it pertains to the tourism and event management sectors. It will enable students to recognise legal and regulatory issues which arise in both sectors and to ensure compliance.

Learning Outcomes
On successful completion of this module the learner should be able to:

LO1	Understand how the Irish legal system operates and the legal principles, including EU and international dimensions, that are fundamental to working in the tourism and event management sectors;
LO2	Apply the fundamental principles of contract, tort and employment law in the context of the tourism and event management sectors;
LO3	Understand the tourism and event management regulatory landscapes, and comply with regulatory requirements;
